

Vivienne MacSweeney was nominated to the Teaching Council by the TUI. Vivienne is a member of the Investigating Committee, Audit Committee, Education Committee and the Post-primary Applications Panel. A graduate of UCC, Vivienne works as Deputy Principal in Colaiste Stiofain Naofa, Tramore Road, Cork. She aims to make teachers more aware of the role and functions of the Teaching Council as a statutory body within the teaching profession. Her hopes for the Teaching Council are that it will enhance the professionalism of teachers and offer society confidence that the high standards of professional practice and conduct in teaching are being maintained.
