

Dr Pauric Travers is a Colleges of Education nominee to the Teaching Council. Pauric is a member of the Education Committee and the Primary Applications Panel. He is President of St. Patrick's College of Education and a member of DCU's governing authority. He is also Vice-Chair of the Centre for Cross-Border Studies, Armagh, and a member of the Standing Committee on Teacher Education North and South (Scotens). A native of Donegal, Pauric currently lives in Dublin and is Chairman of the Board of Management of St. Patrick's Boys' National School. He lists teacher education at initial, induction and continuing professional development levels among his educational interests. His hope for the Teaching Council is that it will protect and enhance the status of teaching in Irish society and thereby enhance the educational experience of Irish children.
