

Christy Carroll was elected to the Council in the Munster (Primary) constituency. Christy is a member of the Disciplinary Committee, Education Committee and the Primary Applications Panel. A native of Duagh in North Kerry, living in Clonmel, Co. Tipperary, Christy spent 22 years as a teaching principal in Kilsheelan National School. Since 2000 he has worked in the area of teachers' professional development, most recently as Regional Coordinator of PPDS in the South East Region. A graduate of St. Patrick's College, Drumcondra, he also studied at UL (MEd) and at UCG (HDE). His vision for the Council is that it will be accepted as the authoritative voice of the profession, uphold the highest standards of teaching and learning and ensure that teaching continues to attract the highest achievers into its ranks.