

Dr. Kevin Marshall is a Ministerial nominee on the Teaching Council representing IBEC. Kevin is a member of the Registration and Finance Committees. He is currently the Head of Education at Microsoft Ireland and represents IBEC on a number of other committees/bodies including the NCCA. He is a member of the Governing Body of Carlow Institute of Technology. He is also visiting research fellow at the Centre for Research in Information Technology (CRITE) located at Trinity College Dublin. Prior to working in Ireland, Kevin worked in Boston Public Schools in the Office of Research, Assessment and Evaluation and was responsible for the School-to-Work transition. He has a BA in Psychology from University College Dublin, an MSc in Industrial Psychology from the University of Hull and a PhD from Boston College