

Ciarán Flynn was nominated to the Teaching Council to represent management bodies at post-primary level. Ciarán is Chairperson of the Audit Committee and a member of the Executive, Investigating, and Registration Committees. Originally from Ballymahon, Co. Longford, he is currently living in Ashbourne, Co. Meath and is a former Principal of Ashbourne Community School. He is a graduate of NUI Maynooth and works as General Secretary of the Association of Community and Comprehensive Schools (ACCS). In that role he provides support and advice on management issues to the 91 Community and Comprehensive Schools and represents their Boards at national level. He lists new teacher induction and probation and school leadership among his educational interests.