

Gerry Malone was nominated to the Teaching Council by the INTO. Gerry is Deputy Chairperson of the Council, Chairperson of the Investigating Committee and a member of the Executive Committee. A native of Dundalk, Gerry graduated from St. Patrick's College in Drumcondra in 1966. He is a former Principal of Rampark National School, Jenkinstown, Dundalk. Gerry served on the Executive of the INTO between 1991 and 2004 and was President of the INTO in 2002/2003. His vision for the Council is that it will be a force in Irish education, promoting and maintaining the highest standards and enhancing the status of the profession.