

Michael Barry is an ASTI nominee to the Teaching Council; he has also represented the ASTI on NCCA course committees. He is a member of the Registration and Audit committees and the Post-primary Applications Panel. Michael is a History and Classics graduate of UCC who has been working at St Patrick's College, Gardiners Hill, Cork since 1982. His aim for the Council is to create a greater awareness of the function and work of the Council.