

TEACHING COUNCIL (REGISTRATION) REGULATIONS 2016

REVISED

This document has been prepared internally by the Teaching Council to facilitate teachers and others by being able to access one revised (or consolidated) set of registration regulations. It presents the main text of S.I. No 444 of 2016 Teaching Council (Registration) Regulations 2016 (the “Principal Regulations”) as it has been amended since the commencement of S.I. No 557 of 2016 Teaching Council (Registration) (Amendment) Regulations 2016 on 8 November 2016.

The primary change to the Principal Regulations was the amendment to Regulation 15 by section 4 of the Teaching Council (Registration)(Amendment) Regulations 2016.

Some explanatory footnotes have been inserted into this document by way of assistance to readers and do not form part of the text of the Principal Regulations or the Teaching Council (Registration) (Amendment) Regulations 2016 as enacted.

- (4) When an application for correction of the register results in a change in information contained in a registration certificate, the Council may make available an updated certificate to the registered teacher in question.

Part 3: Registration

Criteria for admission to register

10. (1) In order to be entitled to be admitted to the register, each applicant shall satisfy the Council–
- (a) that the qualification(s) which he or she possesses meets the education, training and qualifications criteria for admission to the register by one or more of the following routes:
 - (i) primary;
 - (ii) post-primary;
 - (iii) further education; or
 - (iv) other,as set down in the Schedule; and
 - (b) that he or she has satisfied the Council that he or she is a fit and proper person to be admitted to the register.
- (2) All newly qualified teachers, who meet the criteria set out in paragraph (1), shall be granted conditional registration pending successful completion of supervised professional practice as set down by the Council.
- (3) The Council may register an applicant subject to such conditions as the Council considers appropriate, including an applicant who was previously voluntarily removed from the register, an applicant who was previously removed from the register for failure to apply for renewal of registration, and an applicant who was previously removed from the register for failure to comply with a condition of registration.
- (4) If the Council is not satisfied that an applicant meets the education, training and qualifications criteria determined by the Council in accordance with paragraph (1) following an assessment of his or her qualifications under the general system for the recognition of evidence of training provided for in Title III, Chapter I of the Professional Qualifications Directive, it may require that applicant to complete an adaptation period or take an aptitude test, or to both complete an adaptation period and take an aptitude test, in accordance with that Directive.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, paragraph (4) shall also apply to applicants from relevant states who do not come within the scope of the Professional Qualifications Directive and to third country applicants.

Conditional registration for newly qualified teachers (NQTs)

11. (1) All NQTs shall successfully complete a period of supervised professional practice, as set down by the Council, in order to obtain full registration as a teacher.
- (2) Save in exceptional circumstances approved by the Council under paragraph (3), all NQTs shall complete supervised professional practice, as set down by the Council, within a period of 3 years from the date that he or she is granted conditional registration.
- (3) If a NQT does not complete a period of supervised professional practice as set down by the Council, within 3 years, he or she may apply to the Council for an extension of the specified period upon such form as may be prescribed by the Council from time to time, and any extension of the specified period shall be at the discretion of the Council.

- (4) Where a NQT fails to successfully complete the period of supervised professional practice within 3 years, or within an extension of that period granted by the Council under paragraph (3), that person's conditional registration shall lapse.
- (5) Where a NQT who is registered subject to a condition or conditions voluntarily removes himself or herself from the register and later reappplies to be admitted to the register in accordance with these Regulations, that teacher shall be allocated the balance of the time period originally granted to meet the requirements of the condition or conditions, as originally specified, save in exceptional circumstances.
- (6) Where a NQT who is registered subject to a condition or conditions is removed from the register for failure to apply for renewal of registration and later reappplies to be admitted to the register in accordance with these Regulations, that teacher shall be allocated the balance of the time period originally granted to meet the requirements of the condition or conditions, as originally specified, save in exceptional circumstances.

Conditional registration in order to complete adaptation period or aptitude test

- 12.
- (1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Council may grant conditional registration to any applicant who comes within the scope of the Professional Qualifications Directive for a period of up to 3 years in order to allow the applicant to complete an adaptation period or an aptitude test.
 - (2) The Council shall not grant conditional registration to an applicant whose application for registration was received on or after 1 January 2020 and who has opted to take an aptitude test rather than an adaptation period, other than for periods of professional practice.
 - (3) Paragraph (1) shall also apply to applicants from relevant states who do not come within the scope of the Professional Qualifications Directive, and to third country applicants.
 - (4) A teacher with conditional registration may obtain full registration upon the successful completion of an adaptation period or an aptitude test, subject to the successful completion of any other conditions.
 - (5) If a teacher with conditional registration fails to comply with a condition or conditions within the prescribed time period, he or she may apply within the specified period in writing to the Council on such form as is provided by it for an extension of the specified time period, and any extension of the specified period shall be at the discretion of the Council.
 - (6) Where a person fails to comply with the conditions within a specified period or within any extension of the specified period by the Council, that person's conditional registration shall lapse and he or she shall be removed from the Register.
 - (7) Where a teacher who is registered subject to a condition or conditions voluntarily removes himself or herself from the register and later reappplies to be admitted to the register in accordance with these Regulations, that teacher will only be allocated the balance of the time period originally granted to meet the requirements of the condition or conditions, as originally specified, save in exceptional circumstances.
 - (8) Where a teacher who is registered subject to a condition or conditions is removed from the register for failure to apply for renewal of registration and later reappplies to be admitted to the register in accordance with these Regulations, that teacher shall only be allocated the balance of the time period originally granted to meet the requirements of the condition or conditions, as originally specified, save in exceptional circumstances.

OR

3. A qualification or qualifications obtained which, in the opinion of the Teaching Council is or are of an equivalent standard to the standards required under paragraphs 1 or 2 set forth above, having conducted an assessment of that qualification in accordance with the General System.

Explanatory Note

(This note is not part of the Statutory Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations [444] are made under sections 4, 29, 31 and 33 of the Teaching Council Act 2001. They provide for a number of matters in relation to the register of teachers and the registration, and renewal of registration, of teachers on that register.

These Regulations revoke the Teaching Council [Registration] Regulations 2009.

These Regulations may be cited as the Teaching Council (Registration) Regulations 2016.
