1 General

- 1.1 From 28 January 2014 under section 30 of the Teaching Council Act 2001 the paymaster will be prohibited by law from paying any person who is employed as a teacher in a recognised school unless he/she is registered with the Teaching Council. Section 30 does not apply to a person who is employed as a teacher in a centre for education or other education or training setting.
- 1.2 It is therefore essential for anyone employed as a teacher in a recognised school including those on any form of paid leave of absence to be registered and maintain registration at all times.
- 1.3 Limited exceptions permitted under Ministerial regulations under Section 24(8) of the Education Act 1998 (as amended by the Education (Amendment) Act 2012) are attached at Appendix A of this circular. Service given under the limited exceptions does not reckon for incremental credit purposes.
- 1.4 In advance of 28 January 2014, people employed as teachers in recognised schools who are unregistered with the Teaching Council will be notified by their employing school or ETB that payment of salary will cease from that date due to non-registration.

2 Specialised Posts in the Education Sector

- 2.1 There are posts in certain subject areas in the education sector that are occupied by people who are not qualified teachers but whose posts have traditionally been classified as teaching posts. In some cases these posts are, and were always intended to be, teaching posts. In other cases, teaching qualifications are not required or appropriate. In addition, a primary degree or equivalent qualification recognised by the Teaching Council in the subject area in question may not be available, giving rise to concerns about the ongoing supply of qualified staff.
- 2.2 There are, therefore, posts that can be filled by people with appropriate qualifications or experience without an approved teaching qualification. It is in the educational interests of students that the people delivering the courses have appropriate qualifications or experience, and it is in the public interest that such courses and activities can continue.

Lists of the subject areas in question in Special Schools are attached at Appendix B and in Post Leaving Certificate (PLC) colleges at Appendix C of this circular. In these areas, posts will be reclassified and, therefore, will not in future be regarded as teaching posts. All posts delivering the listed subject areas will in future be classified as tutor posts. The holders of these posts will not be subject to the requirements of Section 30. Departmental approval must be granted for the reclassification of the post(s). Appropriate qualifications requirements may be drawn up for tutor appointments in these areas from time to time taking account of industry requirements.

- 2.3 In the PLC area, teachers may deliver some modules in the areas listed in Appendix C where this forms a small proportion of their overall hours.

- 2.4 People currently employed in these posts will retain their current rate of pay and their current terms and conditions of employment. New appointees will be paid as tutors.
- 2.5 There will be other areas where it is necessary to employ an industry or sectoral expert to deliver programme content. An example of this would be content leading to industry-awarded qualifications such as Cisco networking or Microsoft Certified Engineer where the awarding body specifies the qualification to deliver the programme. There will also be other developing and specialist areas in the ICT area as well as areas such as highly specialised crafts, content leading to the awards of sports bodies and others. People in these areas will be employed as tutors or on a contract for service. All proposals to recruit for this purpose must be approved in advance by the Department.

3 The Teaching Council

- 3.1 Each year before his/her renewal date, the Council will send each teacher a reminder notice and renewal form at his/her last notified correspondence address. The Council also issues renewal reminders by email. A registered teacher should make note of his/her renewal date and should contact the Council if he/she does not receive a renewal notice when they would normally expect to receive such a notice.
- 3.2 In the event that registration is not renewed by the renewal date, the Teaching Council will send the teacher a notice stating that he/she will be removed from the register if registration is not renewed. The consequences of removal from the register for teachers in employment including cessation of salary will be specified in the notice.
- 3.3 The Teaching Council will provide the paymaster with registration details for all teachers on an ongoing basis.

4 Recruitment of Teachers

- 4.1 Employers must ensure that all persons proposed for employment (casual and non-casual) provide evidence of current registration prior to the commencement of his/her employment.
- 4.2 Employers may view a teacher's Teaching Council registration renewal receipt of payment or confirm the teacher's registration status online through the Search the Register function available on the Teaching Council website at www.teachingcouncil.ie.
- 4.3 Employers must ensure that the requirement to maintain registration with the Teaching Council is inserted as a condition within all contracts.
- 4.4 The limited exceptions permitted under Ministerial regulations made under Section 24(8) of the Education Act 1998 (as amended by the Education (Amendment) Act 2012) whereby unregistered people may be employed in place of registered teachers are attached at Appendix A of this circular. In particular, the regulations stipulate that an unregistered person may not be paid from public funds for a period of more than 5 consecutive school days.

5 The Paymaster

- 5.1 The Paymaster will check the registration history for each person due to receive salary prior to processing each payroll to confirm registration.
- 5.2 Salary will not be paid by the Paymaster to any teacher for any period of teaching service during which they are not registered with the Teaching Council. There will be no retrospective payment for a period during which a person is unregistered.
- 5.3 Any salary paid for a period when registration has lapsed will be recovered by the Paymaster.
- 5.4 The Paymaster will resume payment of salary from the date of his/her registration with the Teaching council and return to duties.

- 6.3 A person on TCNR leave must submit evidence to his/her employer that registration with the Teaching Council is being pursued in the case of a person eligible for registration or that the necessary qualifications to become registered with the Teaching Council are being pursued in the case of a person ineligible for registration. The employer must retain this evidence and confirm in writing to the Paymaster that a period of unpaid leave has been granted and will continue until further notice by the employer.

Appendix D – Collective Agreement: Redundancy Payments to Public Servants

Under the Public Service Agreement 2010 – 2014 the parties have agreed that Public Service numbers will be reduced in accordance with Government policy on public service numbers, as implemented through Employment Control Frameworks. To that end, the Agreement states (paragraph 1.5) that, where the circumstances require it, the Government may offer voluntary mechanisms to exit the public service, whether generally or in specific sectors, bodies, locations or services.

The Agreement includes a commitment (paragraph 1.6) by public service management that compulsory redundancy will not apply within the Public Service; however this is subject to some key qualifications, namely that it is subject to compliance with the terms of the Agreement, in particular on flexibility on redeployment. There is a saver for circumstances “where existing exit mechanisms apply”. There are established practices for making public servants redundant in appropriate circumstances, on the expiry of employment contracts or where redundancy terms have been agreed or generally applied<sup>1</sup>.

It has been agreed on behalf of the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform and the Public Services Committee of ICTU that the following will apply, with effect from 1 June 2012, on the redundancy of a public servant as defined under the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Act 2009 - 2011<sup>2</sup> or group or class of public servants<sup>3</sup>:

- Any ex gratia payment will amount to no more than 3 weeks pay per year of service, subject to the total statutory redundancy and ex gratia payment not exceeding either 2 years’ pay or one half of the salary payable to preserved pension age, whichever is less;
- In accordance with the provisions in the Redundancy Payments Acts 1967 – 2007, public servants in employment for less than 2 years [104 weeks] are not eligible for a severance payment (statutory or ex gratia);
- Public servants will be advised in writing prior to acceptance of the ex gratia payment that s/he will not be eligible for re-employment in the public service by any public service body (as defined by the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Acts 2009 -2011) for a period of two years from termination of the employment. Thereafter the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform will be required prior to re-employment. This declaration will also include an authorisation that their information (PPS number and details) can be used by their employer or any other public service body for the purposes of monitoring compliance with this provision.

This collective agreement will be reviewed from time to time in light of the prevailing economic and fiscal conditions.

<sup>1</sup> The Implementation Body established under the Agreement has noted [17 February 2012] that it was not intended that these practices would be superseded by the Agreement.

<sup>2</sup> Including public servants employed for a fixed term, meeting the criteria for redundancy under the Redundancy Payments Acts 1967 to 2007 and to whom a redundancy payment is required to be paid in accordance with the Protection of Employees (Fixed Term Work) Act 2003.

<sup>3</sup> A public service employer may seek the sanction of its parent Department and the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform to make a collective agreement with a body representing relevant employees that varies some or all of the terms of this agreement. The redundancy arrangements specified under DES Circular 0058/2006 are unaffected by this collective agreement
