

Overview of presentations:

The topics covered in the presentations varied, from school placement administrative platforms, through the role of the school placement tutor, to the value of team teaching in school placement. These presentations are available here. The event also included a presentation from Professor Kathy Hall (UCC) and Dr Regina Murphy (DCU)¹ on the interim findings from a longitudinal study of the implementation of changes on school placement in HEI programmes in Ireland. This project has been commissioned by the Teaching Council and is due to be completed by autumn 2017. A copy of this presentation is available here.

¹ Vanessa Rutherford (UCC) is a co-author of this report, and additional team members include Alicia Curtin (UCC), Mary Horgan (UCC), and Marie Flynn (DCU).
